

FSW in Italy Course Proposal 2024

Please submit proposals to michael.messina@fsw.edu by Fri., Jan. 27, 2023.

Full-time faculty and administrators credentialed to teach FSW courses are invited to submit proposals for FSW summer courses with a one-month travel abroad component in Italy. In order to achieve the College's strategic initiative of expanding International Education, it is expected that faculty who teach FSW courses with travel abroad will commit to sharing their experiences through faculty mentoring or in curricular and co-curricular activities such as during International Education week, through FSW colloquia, or through TLC workshops. Faculty will be notified in the spring semester if their course has been selected for travel in 2024.

Visit <http://www.ldminstitute.com/> to learn more about LdM.

Instructor Name:

Campus Phone #:

FSW email address:

School:

Preferred LdM Location:

---

Course Name (include FSW course prefix, number, title):

# of Credits:

---

Preferred Term:

Campus/center in which
course will be offered:

LdM summer terms closely align with the FSW academic calendar; exact dates TBD.

Pre-requisites (if any):

---

1. Please describe your experience with international travel, study abroad, and/or time spent on the ground in a different country.

2. What is your experience traveling with students as a group leader either domestically or abroad?

3. Please elaborate on your experience with the chosen destination (e.g., traveled, studied, researched, published, etc.)

4. Please explain why you are motivated to teach the proposed course abroad and how students will benefit. Be specific about how the location will help meet or enhance intended course outcomes.

5. What possible excursions and/or activities could you participate in with your students to help enhance learning outside the classroom?

6. Please explain how your experience at LdM may contribute to one or more of the following partnership objectives.

1. To improve international understanding;
2. To enhance the development of joint educational and research projects;
3. To increase individual educational opportunities;
4. To enrich the educational environment of both Parties;
5. To promote the exchange of teachers, researchers, and students for teaching and research programs;
6. To promote reciprocal consultations and the exchange of teaching and learning materials;
7. To engage in joint proposals for grants or awards to support research, teaching, training, and services.

7. Please explain how teaching at LdM may contribute to your scholarship.

8. Describe your proposed course in a short paragraph as it would appear in a course catalogue. Include details for marketing and promotional materials.

---

Faculty e-signature:

---

for Department Chair only

I support this proposal.      Yes      No

Department Chair e-signature:

---

for Dean only

I support this proposal.      Yes      No

Dean e-signature: